At creation, God made the seasons, each with a purpose attached to it. We must know that creation itself was not an accident; God had a plan in mind. Genesis 8 v 22 says While the earth remaineth, seed time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night shall not cease. Our individual lives which revolve around Christ will make us to enter and exit many seasons, some of which are good while some not too good, while Jesus remains the same yesterday today and forever. Heb. 13 v 8. Just like the scripture says in Eccl. 3 v 1 To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven There is a purpose for every season whether pleasant or unpleasant. There are seasons you would have preferred not to go through if you had to make a choice, but going through them invariably makes you to learn some life lessons, which you may not have had access to except through those experiences enveloped in the seasons. Note that because you are going through some challenges or have gone through a rough season does not mean God is through with you because, Phil. 1 v 6 says Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ According to this scripture, no matter the challenges that may come your way, God has purposed a good work in your life which He will complete to translate you into your new season. I prophesy that by divine arrangement, you are...
