General Accounting Office, 2003 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)53441734 Subject: Internet in public administration -- United States. Excerpt: . . . offering easy, one-stop access to a robust, high quality e-training environment; and leveraging components of existing e-training systems. The e-Training Initiative is composed of three developmental modules. Module 1, launched in July 2002, included 37 free commercial off-the-shelf training courses (on topics such as project management, prevention of sexual harassment, using Microsoft Excel spreadsheet software, and change management); Search and Select, a set of quick 5 to 7 minute learning segments; and E-Books, a collection of over 100 professional journals and books. Module 2, launched in January 2003, added access to additional free commercial and government courses, fee-for-service options for e-training products and services, enhanced registration and reporting, and blended learning options for law enforcement training and executive and management training. Finally, Module 3, originally scheduled for June 2003, recently became operational. OPM states that this module will include a Merit Systems Principles e-course, as well as competency-based workforce development roadmaps specifically for IT workforce occupations. According...
