Reviews

It is one of my personal favorite books. It is written in easy terms and never hard to understand. It has been designed in an exceedingly easy way and it is only after I finished reading this publication by which in fact changed me, change the way I think.

External Reality Of All Sense Qualities Vindicated. Huperphysical Idealism And Physical Realism . 122. In Normal Conditions Of Perception This RelaTivity Is Compatible With External Reality Of Sense QUALITIES. --That all the sense qualities alike are extramental, that the proper sensibles no less than the cpmmon sensibles (i 15) are real characteristics of a domain of reality which exists independently of the perceivers mind, a domain which he apprehends as material reality and distinguishes into two parts, viz. the external universe and his own body or material organism, we consider to be as certain as the already established extramental existence of this material domain itself. Of this domain he becomes aware by becoming aware of the sense qualities. If these are not really in it and do not really characterize it, how can he be certain even of its extramental existence And if they are not extramentally real how can they be in an extramental reality or characterize it or reveal it to him But when they appear to him in actual perception as affecting the external ox extra-organic or non-self domain of reality, can he be sure that they are really in this domain notwithstanding the fact that for the specific determinations with which they are presented to his consciousness they are partially dependent on the subjective or self factor which is his own organism The answer is that he can, provided that this organic, subjective or self factor is normal:...
