Excerpt: .Texas Timmons, of Jefferson City, Tenn., and to this union two daughters were born--Una, born Nov. 10, 1876, and Lelia, born Oct. 26, 1879. In 1882 he moved to Knoxville and secured a position as bookkeeper for a dry goods store and later of a hardware firm. His wife died December 24, 1886, and was buried at Jefferson City, Tenn. He was clerk in the office of a pension attorney, later buying out his employer and running the business himself. He soon built up a good business, as he was favorably known all over East Tennessee, and having been a Union soldier, this aided him in securing pension claims. He was public spirited and liberal to charitable organizations. His happy disposition made him jolly and companionable. Strictly upright and honest in his dealings. On the 11th of August, 1889, he married as his second...
