Sutter Creek, California - 1852 Book 1: A Mail Order Bride For Isaac Isaac Walters is used to working his fingers to the bone, but he s never had to work for much else. He inherits his business after his father s retirement, and also manages to acquire his charming Sutter Creek home when his sister marries an oil tycoon on the East Coast. But when he nearly loses everything he has in a single act of carelessness, he s finally pushed to consider how lucky he s been. Tired of depending on the kindness of fate, Isaac decides to get serious about one thing at a time, starting with marriage; after all, what could be so difficult about forging a new way of life? Book 2: A Mail Order Bride For JeremiahMiner Jeremiah Smith is used to spending his days counting down the minutes until the work whistle blowsthat s his cue to head to the saloon with his brother Earl, or for them to head home for a hearty meal and a night of playing cards. But when Earl dies, he leaves a void in the spacious Main Street home, and Jeremiah is faced with a tough decision: either hold out hope that his growing mining town will eventually attract single women, or begin his search for a mail order bride. Book 3: A Mail Order Bride For LewisLewis Brown has the greenest thumb in Sutter Creekand the loneliest heart. The gentle farmer provides produce to more than a thousand residents, but he cant seem to get...
