He places you smack in the middle of people who faced their go point, when actions or lack of them determined the fates of individuals, companies, and countries. Why on earth did Robert E. Lee send General George Pickett on an almost suicidal charge against the Union lines at Gettysburg? How does the leader of a firefighting crew make life-or-death decisions when one direction means safety, the other danger? You ve just assumed responsibility for a scandal-wracked corporation, a company teetering on the brink of disaster. What you decide over the course of the next several days will have consequences for thousands of employees and investors. How do you fulfill your responsibilities? You ll discover why some decisions were flawless, perfectly on target, and others utterly disastrous. Most of all, you ll learn how to make the right calls yourself, whether you re changing your career, launching a product, or deciding on a potential acquisition or merger.
