Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from X-Ray Observations for Foreign Bodies and Their Localisation This small contribttion to War Radiology was written by inviation in June, 1917. It ivas to have been a chapter on the localisation of foreign bodies in a ivork that was being compiled for the American Council of National Defence but owing to the death of the Editor the publication was abandoned. The matter remains unchanged with the exception of some snall additions and appendices. The Hospital at Ris Orangis has, during 1917 and 1918 been largely used as a training centre, and it is in response to the requests of many visitors to the clinic that the book is now published. It formed the basis of the lectures given on the subject. These observations are based on the personal experience of the Author with the methods referred to in this book, constituting over 4 years application to the problems of war radiology (the first seven months were passed in an advanced ambidance within three miles of the line, the remainder has been spent at the base, apart from visits of detached duty), but for the majority of them, no originality is claimed; and it is impossible to give personal acknowledgment to all who have generously helped me, or to the originator and every method mentioned. I should like, however, to acknowledge the great kindness and courtesy shown to me, and the information and experience so freely placed at my disposal, by my French colleagues. It is largely owing to their keen appreciation of the questions involved, and their unwearied application to the solution of the problems presented, that much progress has been made. To Dr. Belot...
