Criticism and analysis will very soon elucidate what refers to the details of this system; the essential principles and the spirit of the decree are all that can properly be set forth here and at this time. To do this is the more necessary, since the first and most essential condition of success in this class of reforms is absolute sincerity of purpose. With sincerity the Government has proceeded to consider the best form of autonomic constitution for the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico; and that the results have not fallen short of its intention it hopes to give in these observations complete proof. The Government proposed to itself to state the principle clearly, to unfold it in all its integrity, and to surround it with all the guaranties necessary to its success. For when it is proposed to intrust the direction of their affairs...
