Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is a response to a book recently published by Ian Rossol Tony Wastall Win the World or Escape the Earth Their book is subtitled The end times controversy By using the word controversy the guys, my brothers in Jesus, clearly accept that there are alternative views. This response is one of them. Ian Tony refer to themselves as partial preterists and victorious amillennialists. A full preterist is someone who believes that the whole of Matthew 24 and Luke 21 (for example) and most other prophetic scriptures were all fulfilled by AD70. Ian and Tony feel that is too extreme so they adopt what they refer to as a more balanced view. An amillennialist believes that even though the Bible refers to a coming specific period of 1000 years it doesn't mean it literally. My stance is that, for the most part, the Bible is to be taken literally and that although some of the Bible prophecies may have taken place in the 1st century the majority of them still have a future fulfilment. I describe myself as a dualist (or multiplist) I believe that some scriptures will have more than one fulfilment - sometimes a different one for each generation. For example the devil has been seeking to raise up his champion down through the ages - Pharaoh, Haman, Herod, Hitler - and ultimately this will peak with the antichrist. I believe that by putting everything into the 1st century, Ian and Tony are missing out on the tremendous things which God is doing right now in our generation particularly the return of His ancient people the Jews to their Promised Land. I make reference...
